

NH&RA

NATIONAL HOUSING &
REHABILITATION ASSOCIATION

NH&RA is a professional association of affordable housing and multifamily owners, developers and related professionals. Our primary mission is to help our members expand their businesses and create value through business-to-business exchange, time-sensitive information services, transaction-oriented education, fostering new business relationships and targeted issue advocacy. Through NH&RA our members know that they can count on meeting the most dynamic individuals in the business. Members attest to the growth they have experienced in their business as a result of the information and relationships gained through NH&RA.

NH&RA Membership

NH&RA members receive tremendous value from the trend spotting, information sharing, relationship building and business development opportunities at our conferences and through participation in our working groups and councils. NH&RA has provided a forum for the most sophisticated participants in affordable housing, historic rehabilitation and community development transactions since 1971.

Membership is by company or organization, which allows all employees to participate in and benefit from NH&RA. Each company or organization may designate a Primary and Alternate Delegate as well as an unlimited number of Additional Delegates.

NH&RA

NATIONAL HOUSING &
REHABILITATION ASSOCIATION

To support the diverse activities of our members, NH&RA has formed councils and committees to share ideas, network, and advocate on specialty issues and programs. These forums provide a venue for top executives to learn from each other and promote better business practices across the industry. These Councils, Committees, and Working Groups are exclusive to NH&RA members.

ASSET MANAGEMENT COUNCIL

This council focuses on creating enterprise value for owners and investors of affordable housing through the development of asset management best practices. The council focuses on an array of topics including organizational benchmarking, utility efficiency, disposition and recapitalization best practices, portfolio management and risk mitigation with an emphasis on creating value and fostering collaboration. The Asset Management Council also hosts NH&RA's Council on Energy Friendly Affordable Housing, a working group of owners, managers, and consultants dedicated to improving the energy performance of the existing LIHTC and HUD-assisted housing portfolio while encouraging policies that support sustainable development.

BOND POLICY COUNCIL

A peer network of developers and tax-exempt bond financing professionals dedicated to developing model public policy and best practices aimed at leveraging greater use of private activity bonds for multifamily housing development.

DEVELOPERS COUNCIL

A peer network of developers who discuss topics of mutual interest including development opportunities, funding sources, etc. Participation in the Developers Council events is limited to Developers only.

NATIONAL COUNCIL OF HOUSING MARKET ANALYSTS

A network for real estate market analysts, appraisers, housing finance agencies and underwriting professionals devoted to education, research, and information and resource sharing. NCHMA is the only national organization dedicated to multifamily market analysis and underwriting.

NEXT GENERATION LEADERSHIP INITIATIVE

The Initiative seeks to engage the voices of rising executives in a conversation about what's next for affordable housing, create connections and opportunities for the next generation of industry leaders, sustain the success of affordable housing and ensure NH&RA continues our legacy of helping members expand their business. We welcome mid-career professionals who are rising, or have risen, to executive level positions within their organizations.

PUBLIC HOUSING REVITALIZATION COUNCIL

A network of the most active developers and advisors involved in public housing redevelopment transactions (HOPE VI, Choice Neighborhoods Initiative & mixed-finance) who convene to address ongoing issues with the development, capitalization, and operation of projects. Members of this Council may also participate in the RAD User Group.

TENNESSEE DEVELOPERS COUNCIL

NH&RA's Tennessee Developers Council provides a forum for LIHTC and affordable multifamily developers (both private and non-profit) who work with the Tennessee Housing Development Authority to convene on a regular basis to share ideas, network, and provide a clear voice on key policy issues being considered by THDA and state legislators.

More information is available at www.housingonline.com/councils.

Please select the appropriate membership level for your organization, indicate one Primary Delegate who will serve as NH&RA’s main point of contact, and indicate at least one Additional Delegate.
