

National Council of Housing Market Analysts

Created in 2001, the National Council of Housing Market Analysts (NCHMA), formerly the National Council of Affordable Housing Market Analysts, is the only professional body dedicated exclusively to enhancing the professionalism and standards surrounding residential rental real estate market analysis. NCHMA's members are comprised primarily of professionals involved in performing and reviewing residential market studies and underwriting residential real estate.

NCHMA Membership

NCHMA is an affiliate of the National Housing & Rehabilitation Association (NH&RA), a trade association that has offered affordable housing professionals opportunities to better their business for 40+ years. NH&RA provides managerial and administrative support to NCHMA. NCHMA members receive all the benefits available to NH&RA members, including participation on NH&RA Councils and Committees.

Membership is by company and organization, which allows all employees to benefit from a NCHMA membership. Each company or organization designates a Primary and Alternate Delegate, and an unlimited number of Additional delegates.

NH&RA Councils & Committees

To support the diverse activities of our members, NH&RA formed councils and committees to share ideas, network, and advocate on behalf of niche issues and programs. These forums provide a space for top executives to learn from each other and promote better business practices across the industry. These Councils, Committees, and Working Groups are exclusive to NH&RA members.

ASSET MANAGEMENT COUNCIL

This council focuses on developer-oriented asset management issues in order to identify opportunities to create value and collaboration, while mitigate risk across their companies and portfolios.

COUNCIL ON ENERGY FRIENDLY AFFORDABLE HOUSING

A working group of owners, managers, and consultants dedicated to improving the energy performance of the existing LIHTC and HUD-assisted housing portfolio, and encouraging policies that support sustainable development.

DEVELOPERS COUNCIL

A peer network of developers who discuss topics of mutual interest including development opportunities, funding sources, etc. Participation in the Developers Council events is limited to Developers only.

HISTORIC PRESERVATION DEVELOPMENT COUNCIL

A joint effort between NH&RA and the National Trust for Historic Preservation focused on making the federal historic rehabilitation tax credit a more useful financing source.

NATIONAL COUNCIL OF HOUSING MARKET ANALYSTS

A network for real estate market analysts, appraisers, and underwriting professionals devoted to education, research, and information and resource sharing. NCHMA is the only national organization dedicated to multifamily market analysis and underwriting.

NEXT GENERATION LEADERSHIP INITIATIVE

The Initiative seeks to engage the voices of rising executives in a conversation about what's next for affordable housing, create connections and opportunities for the next generation of industry leaders, sustain the success of affordable housing and ensure NH&RA continues our legacy of helping members expand their business. We welcome mid-career professionals who are rising, or have risen, to executive level positions within their organizations.

PUBLIC HOUSING REVITALIZATION COUNCIL

A network of the most active developers and advisors involved in public housing redevelopment transactions (HOPE VI, Choice Neighborhoods Initiative & mixed-finance) who convene to address ongoing issues with the development, capitalization, and operation of projects. Members of this Council may also participate in the RAD User Group.

TENNESSEE DEVELOPERS COUNCIL

NH&RA's Tennessee Developers Council provides a forum for LIHTC and affordable multifamily developers (both private and non-profit) who work with the Tennessee Housing Development Authority to convene on a regular basis to share ideas, network, and provide a clear voice on key policy issues being considered by THDA and state legislators.
